

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

- The health and safety objectives are to prevent injury and ill health and continually improve the performance of health and safety system.
- All activities, products (machining) and services will comply with applicable legal and any other requirements to which the Company subscribes
- The management is committed to maintain safe and healthy working conditions, equipment and systems of work for all its employees, all visitors to the company, including contractors and temporary workers, as well as any member of the public who might be affected by our operations.
- Company will use risk assessment techniques to identify hazards, characterise the hazards, analyze the risks, evaluate the risks and determining the appropriate options for risk control for all hazards that the organisation generates or exposed to.
- The management will provide every employee with the training necessary to carry out their task safely.
- The allocation of duties for on site health and safety matters and the particular arrangements to implement the policy will be set out in the health and safety manual.
- Company will ensure that the health and safety policy is continually monitored and updated and communicated to all staff, contractors, visitors and interested parties by relevant techniques

HARISH PANT
(MANAGING DIRECTOR)

Dated: 7th July 2008